FATALLY WOUNDED HIS WIFE.

John Kelly, seventy-five years old, a retired contractor and real estate dealer, fatally wounded his wife, Margaret, seventy-three years of age, the police assert, early yesterday in their home in Cincinnati, Ohio. Kelly then tried to commit suicide by beating out his brains with a hatchet, the weapon used upon his wife. Mrs. Kelly is at a hospital with her skull fractured. Kelly, although severely hurt, will recover. Within a few days the couple were to have celebrated their golden anniversity. They prepared to go to church yesterday morning, and the quarrel came when Kelly accused his wife, it is alleged, of drawing upon their saving account without his knowledge. Kelly, the police say, seized the hatchet and beat his helpmate fiercely with it. A daughter returning from church found her father battering himself and went for assistance. Both the aged people were unconscious when the neighbors arrived and they were taken to a hospital.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Struck by lightning during a severe storm in Goochland county, Va., yesterday afternoon, Saunders Hobson, prominent in business and social circles of Richmond, lies at the point of death and without medical attention, while a race against time is being made by relatives and friends in Richmond. A special train, composed of the cars of the president and general manager of the road, left over the Chesspeake and Ohio railroad about 10 o'clock last night for a record run of forty-nine miles. It carried three physicians, two nurses, and several other Richmond persons. Mr. Hobson is a member of the firm of Hobson, Massie & Leigh, bankers and brokers, and members of the New York Stock Exchange. He owns a large plantation near Pemberton, in Goochland county, and usually spends his Sundays there. The only account of the accident yet received states that he was walking through his estate when struck by lightning.

DEER KILLS BULL DOG.

A fight to the death between a bull dog and a buck deer was one of the sights in Riverside Park, Pittsburg, Pa., Friday afternoon. The buck won handily, killing his bloodthirsty antagonist without receiving more than a few wounds himself.

The bulldog, a prize winner, was taken in the park by his owner, Mrs. Walter Dun. She had the animal on a chain, but when he spied the buck deer he upset Mrs. Dun, pulling the chain from her hand, and the fight was on. The dog missed landing on the first rush, and this was fatal, as the buck met the second rush with a vicious kick, which sent the dog flying. Several times the dog came back, only to be blocked by the vicious feet of the buck, which finally jumped into the air, coming down with all four feet on the prostrate dog. The bulldog was valued at $500.

SUICIDE ON EVE OF WEDDING.

Wedding guests to the number of a score came to the little house at 511 Greenwich street, Philadelphia, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. They were friends of Nathan Presser, a young man who lived there with his father and sisters. He was to be married at 10:30 o'clock to handsome and wealthy Rose Schattenstein, of Allentown, and his friends had come in gala dress to wish him godspeed and to go with him to Allentown for the wedding. But instead of a place of festival the laughing visitors came suddenly upon a house of sorrow. At 2 o'clock the bridegroom-to-be had poured oil over his clothing and set a match to it. A moment later he had been found whirling in a flame in his bed room, and at 5 o'clock he died. It is said his bride-to-be had refused to advance him money to start him in business.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT.

Former Principal Edward Sullivan, of the Exeter, Pa., schools, was found guilty yesterday of assault and battery because he kissed pretty Miss Agnes Finn, one of the school teachers. She declares that he was violent, and she objected, as far as her strength would allow, to being kissed by Sullivan. She told the jury he entered her school room at recess time, and as she sat in a chair threw his arms around her and kissed her several times against her will. She was so angry, she declared, she threw a paper weight at him, whereupon he slapped her cheeks, pulled her hair and bit her lip.

KILLED MASQUERADER.

Policeman George Thomson, of New York, who was slashed with a razor by a negro masquerading in woman's clothes early yesterday morning, and who shot the negro dead, was not seriously wounded. Thomson attempted to arrest the negro on a charge of misdemeanor. He was taking his prisoner to a patrol box, when the negro whipped out a razor, gashed him and ran. Thomson fired one shot in the air at the flying figure in woman's skirts and started in pursuit, although he was bleeding freely. The negro turned down Manhattan avenue, and when he saw that he was being overtaken, he turned and made another slash at the policeman. Then Thomson shot to kill. His bullet entered the negro's heart. It was not until the body had been removed to a station house that it was discovered that the supposed woman was a man.

To City Taxpayers—Notice.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1908.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1908 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1908, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1908, he shall allow a discount of five per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1908, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1909, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the Collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law. P. F. GORMAN,

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 22, 1908

COMMON REPORT around the capitol in Washington does not give James S. Sherman, candidate for vice-president, praise for patriotic or disinterested work in any matter. He always has praised Roosevelt, yet Roosevelt never intrusted him with anything connected with the execution of "my policies." In fact Mr. Roosevelt never had anything to do with him except when it was to his own interest, as in the case of the "My Dear Mr. Sherman" letter, prepared for the undoing of Harriman. Mr. Sherman was chosen then because he was chairman of the republican congressional committee. Judged by the company he has kept as a member of the House, persons who heard he was one of five congressmen from New York who did not pay their clerks all the salary they were supposed to receive, were not at all astonished. They simply thought it not at all unlikely, because there is nothing in the law requiring a congressman to pay all the $125 a month he receives for clerk hire to one person. It is all right for him to pay a woman stenographer $50 a month and give the remainder to another clerk who, at the same time, may be receiving part of the clerk's allowance from another member. Mr. Sherman never has been an open and avowed friend of the railroads, but he, with Mr. Dalzell, constitutes a majority of the committee on rules, which controls the House as absolutely as if it were a bit of chattel property.

SIXTY delegates to the democratic national convention were chosen during the past week. Full State delegations were elected from Colorado, Mississippi and Tennessee and six delegates were chosen at a second primary in Florida, the other four having been elected at the May primary. Of the sixty delegates selected last week fifty-nine are for Bryan and one is uncommitted. The call for the national convention fixed its membership at 1,002, the Philippines being excluded from representation. Six Philippine delegates have been chosen, however, and will apply for admission. Sixty-four delegates are still to be chosen from the four states of Georgia, North Carolina, Vermont and Montana. Georgia's delegation may be divided, but Montana and North Carolina are likely to support Mr. Bryan. Of the 938 delegates so far elected 727 are instructed for Mr. Bryan or committed to his support by resolutions of preference or public announcements. Twenty-two are for Johnson, 11 are for Gray and 178 are uncommitted. Mr. Bryan has the support of 77.5 per cent of the delegates so far elected, and according to these figures, will have a walkover on the first ballot at Denver. All talk to the effect that he will not secure the nomination on the first ballot seems to vanish in the face of these figures. It would not be surprising if Mr. Bryan's name were the only one presented at Denver.

MR. THOMAS LAWSON, to keep himself before the public has, published a letter in which he asks Mr. Bryan to "say the word that will result in the nomination of Gov. Johnson, of Minnesota, for president on the democratic ticket, and to accept the nomination for vice president himself." Mr. Lawson offers to raise $500,000 to defray the campaign expenses of Gov. Johnson, and says if that is not sufficient he will guarantee another half million. Mr. Lawson is a four flusher and can not be relied upon. For some time past he has been advertising his advice and profiting from those who were silly enough to take it.

A DISPATCH sent out from Chicago last Thursday stated that the presidential candidate would be permitted to name his running mate if he so desired and added:

No sooner had the convention adjourned today than Mr. Taft's immediate supporters set to work to ascertain his wishes regarding a candidate for the vice presidency. They wired him direct and pending his reply refused to voice any opinion as to the probable outcome of the balloting. As a rule, the Taft men manifested a willingness to abide by the secretary's wishes, but there were those among them who took the position that the delegates should be permitted to cast their votes according to their own predilections.

But it was not intended that they should. They were not sent to Chicago to exercise their own judgment but to obey orders.

MR. BRYAN declares the republicans have deserted seven questions of the day urged by President Roosevelt or Congress; that the party is "in full retreat," and that President Roosevelt has acquiesced in the "turning back." All of this is true, but there should be no surprise in the "turning back" of Mr. Roosevelt. He is one of the many who does not believe that a modern politician can afford to be consistent!

IF a resident of Marshfield, Wis., is known to be a habitual drunkard he will find his photograph staring at him from behind the bars of all the saloons of that city. The Marshfield city council has passed an ordinance to this effect. The council will also sit as a court to decide on a man's eligibility to have his photo posted.

"I WOULD rather be a doorkeeper in the House of the Lord than dwell in the tents of wickedness," says Speaker Cannon. Evidently Uncle Joe cannot get a job as a doorkeeper—[Philadelphia North American.

But he did not say so. He said he would rather be a doorkeeper in the House of Lords, but his familiars question his statement.

MR. SHERMAN, the republican nominee for vice-president, was for years the head of the ice trust in Utica, N. Y. Of course he will have to explain this during the campaign.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 22.

Within a few days Washington will feel afar the tremor of the political upheaval which threatens to interrupt the peaceful work of the canal diggers of Panama. Senor Mejia Salvadore, the new minister, will arrive and Senor Arango, the present minister of Panama, will depart. Behind the change lies a story. It is evident that President Amador who is striving to elect his candidate, Arias, does not like the result of Senor Arango's labors—the crowding of marines on the Isthmus. While the Chicago convention was at its height he lurked in the shadows of Secretay Taft's office waiting to drop a word of alarm and ask for another draft of marines or another warship or two. Occasionally he remarked that if Obaldia was not elected there would be a revolution which would upset things on the canal. In the meantime President Amador kept the cables hot with messages of peace and serenity. Therefore the change. Senor Salvadore is on his way to Washington. When he arrives he is expected to supplement the messages of peace and paint word pictures of the quiet preelection days in Panama. In the meantime the canal authorities are watching for themselves.

Captain A. Reynolds, who has been a navy representative in connection with warship construction at the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, has been assigned to command the armored cruiser Montana when placed in commission. The Montana will be turned over to the government at the Norfolk navy yard July 15.

The Weather Bureau issued the following special forecast at noon today: "The warm wave that now covers the country generally east of the Rocky mountains will break over the plains states Tuesday, over the Mississippi valley and the western lake region Wednesday, in the Ohio valley and eastern lake region Wednesday night, and in the Atlantic states Thursday. Local rains and thunderstorms will attend the advent of the cooler weather in the several sections named. Moderate temperature will be experienced over the eastern portion of the country during the closing days of the week."

A force of stenographers and clerks are working in Secretary Taft's office writing replies to the thousands of messages that have been received. The flood of telegrams is spent but nearly a thousand letters are coming in every day with a prospect of a still greater number within the next week. If Secretary Taft is physically equal to the task he will sign the several thousand messages now awaiting him on his return to the office. Mrs. Taft is also being engulfed with letters, but upon her departure yesterday she gave directions that they must not be touched until her return. She will, if possible, reply to all of them personally. Letters of congratulations were received this morning in the secretary's office from Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Garfield, the widows of the former presidents. Hundreds of letters come from business men throughout the country and their chief characteristic is a tone of hopefulness at the secretary's nomination.

A determined war against the present railroad rates on phosphate rock has been begun by fertilizer manufacturers all over the country. Today the Interstate Commerce Commission received a complaint from five firms—Darling and Company, of Chicago; The Buffalo Fertilizer Company, of Buffalo, N. Y., E. I. Raub and Sons Fertilizer Company, Indianapolis, Ind., J. A. Recki Chemical Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, and the Wichet Fertilizer Company, Dayton Ohio. The petitioners claim that 38 railroads by successive advances in their rates, are now exacting an exorbitant and unreasonable rate for the transportation of phosphate from Tennessee to middle western points and discriminating against them.

So widespread has become the fatal accidents on Fourth of July that the federal government will endeavor to reduce the number of deaths. Surgeon General Wyman of the Marine Hospital and Public Health Service today issued a circular giving instructions as to the treatment of Fourth of July injuries. He says that during the last five years, there have been 786 cases of tatanus, or lock-jaw, as the result of the gunpowder celebration of the national holiday, and of this number 721 died. Dr. Wyman suggests the injuries be treated in this way: "Incise freely every wound. Carefully and throughly remove from the wound every particle of foreign matter. Cauterize the wound throughly with 25 per cent carbolic acid. Apply loosely a wet pack of 2.5 per cent carbolic acid. give a full dose of antitetanic serum."

The jury in the Hyde-Dimond-Schneider land fraud case reported again today their inability to reach a verdict. The jury was then locked up again.

NEW LAWYERS.

The record in point of numbers was made at the bar examination before the Court of Appeals, at Wytheville, last week, 101 applicants out of a class of 119 passing the examination. The following are the names of those in this section of the State who passed:

Lewis D. Crenshaw, Orange; Alexander S. Campbell, Warrenton; Amos Cameron Crounce, Herndon; E. E. Johnson, Woodville; F. D. Richardson, Fairfax; Walter H. Robertson, Warrenton; Ray Robinson, Winchester; Sidney Lee Showalter, Broadway.

News of the Day.

Lewis Nixon is being talked of by New York democrats as the possible candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket.

"Elijah" Frank W. Sandford, founder of the Holy Ghost and Us Society, has predicted that the world will come to an end in October.

It is reported that all the French deputies and senators who voted for the separation law in Parliament have been excommunicated from the Catholic Church.

William J. Bryan is said to favor former State Treasurer Berry, of Pennsylvania, as his running mate, and is also said to be willing to accept Gray or Johnson.

Seven persons were painfully injured and a dozen or more sustained cuts and bruises as the result of a trolley wreck yesterday evening, when a loaded car crashed into an open switch on the Funkstown line, just outside of Hagerstown, Md.

Should Secretary Taft become the next president of the United States the country will again see the executive family divided in religious views, as in the Roosevelt case. Both Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Roosevelt are communicants of St. John's Episcopal Church; the present president worships at the Dutch Reformed Church, and Secretary Taft is a regular attendant at All Souls' Unitarian Church.

Two touring cars, one big and swift, the other a modest little one, collided with each other in a blinding cloud of dust near Hempstead on Long Island, about 6 o'clock yesterday evening. Joseph X. Arosemena, of New Rochelle, owner of the little car, died of a fractured skull an hour later. His wife, two children, and chafleur, Arosemens's companions in the car, got off with bruises. All the five persons in the big car were hurt; three of them are at the hospital.

Taft and Sherman, the republican candidates, had a conference at the home of Secretary Taft's brother, in Cincinnati, Saturday, with the sub-committee of the republican national committee and postponed the selection of a national chairman. Frank H. Hitchcock, who managed the preliminary campaign of the war secretary at Washington, might have had the chairmanship. At the last moment he declined to permit the use of his name because of the condition of his health.

It is estimated that 500,000 people participated in or viewed the suffragette demonstrations in Hyde Park, London, yesterday. Encouraged by previous achievements, the suffragettes planned the demonstration as a climax of the year's fight for women suffrage, and perhaps never before was such a political demonstration seen in London. Probably there were about 20 speakers, and these harangued the masses on the right of women to vote and the necessity of force in parliament to adopt a resolution on the question. The attitude of the onlookers was one of amused tolerance. Considerable scuffling and rowdyism occurred around the platform occupied by Mrs. Parkhurst, the leader of the suffragettes, and it finally became so serious as to call for police reinforcements. Thirty persons were treated for slight injuries as a result of the crowding and fighting. Similar scenes were enacted around Mrs. Hartel's platform.

A GRASS WIDOWS' BALL.

Twenty of the merriest of "merry (grass) widows" were hostesses at a ball given Saturday evening at Stigler, the county seat of Haskell county, Okla. Twenty-four hours previously they had been freed from their marital ties by the decrees of Judge Bosser, of the District Court.

The earthwhile spouses of several of them attended the ball and were lively participants in the festivities. Three matronly widows acted as chaperons. Two of them had grown sons, who were escorts to the young widows from the east who had spent the required residence in the new state. The widows' attorneys and several strangers and a select few of the society folk of the town also were present.

Judge Bosser was toasted several times during the evening and was made the subject of a rousing song by a chorus of widows, with a refrain to the effect that "He's a jolly good fellow."

VIRGINIA-WEST VIRGINIA DEBT CASE.

Attorney General Anderson has been advised that Charles E. Littlefield, now of New York, former member of Congress from Maine, who has been designated as master in the Virginia and West Virginia debt litigation, has notified counsel for the State of Virginia and the State of West Virginia to meet him in Washington on June 29 for the purpose of determining on a course of procedure in the litigation. Mr. Littlefield was named special master by the Supreme Court of the United States to hear the case and to make a recommendation to the court to be followed in reaching a decision in the matter. It is evidently the purpose of the master to go into the case promptly and to put a final end to the long dispute.

LONGEST IN VIRGINIA.

The work of excavating the great tunnel through Olinch mountain at Speer's Ferry, on the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio railroad, is completed. This is the longest tunnel in Virginia, being approximately three-fourths of a mile in length. Very few accidents have happened in the tunnel, the greatest caution and care having been exercised. The grading of the road is nearing completion and the work is being hurried forward. It is understood that much track laying on the road will be done before the end of the year.

Virginia News.

Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York, preached the commencement sermon to to graduates of the Virginia Military Institute yesterday.

Mrs. Annie Eliza Hollingsworth, widow of Joseph P. Hollingsworth, died at her home in Winchester on Saturday aged 55 years. She was a native of Loudoun county.

Sheriff Edwards, of Loudoun county, has gone to Carroll, O., for Harrison Thompson, colored, who in 1899 murdered Town Sergeant Milton Seaton, of Middleburg. Thompson is under arrest at Carroll.

Mrs. Mary Adelade Brannon, wife of Robert Brannon, a well-known farmer of Fairfax county, died at her home, at White Hall, Saturday aged 68 years. She was a Miss Taylor and was twice married, her first husband having been the late Edward Lewis.

The Virginia Bankers' Association at their final session at Hot Springs Saturday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Joseph Stebbens, of south Boston; secretary, N. P. Gattling, of Lynchburg; treasurer, H. A. Williams, of Richmond.

MRS. LOGAN CAUSES SURPRISE.

Mrs. John A. Logan amazed a large concourse gathered in Memorial Hall in the Public Library in Chicago Saturday to witness the unveiling of a bronze bust of her husband by plunging into a discussion of the unhappy marital experience of her daughter, Dolly Logan Tucker, and by voicing her bitterness against her daughter's husband, Col. William F. Tucker, chief paymaster of the Department of the Lakes.

Mrs. Tucker's charges against her husband of indiscretions with a facinating widow in the Philippine Islands, and the attempt of herself and Mrs. Logan to have Col. Tucker cashiered by court-martial from the army, formed one of the most sensational chapters of newspaper history in recent years.

The 300 old soldiers, their families, and friends who assembled to listen to Mrs. Logan, who had been invited to make the principal address at the unveiling of the bust of "Black Jack" Logan, knew of the venerable woman's dislike for her daughter's husband. But they were startled when she took the occasion as an opportunity to make the public familiar with her private griefs.

"In the twenty-one years that have passed since Gen. Logan lay down to peaceful slumber," she said, "I have lived in bitter experience, the saddest being the past two years, because of the living sorrow which has come to our surviving child. We have borne all in silence, as we felt Gen. Logan would have had us do, believing that time would bring complete vindication and proof that it was not brought on by an act of ours."

The de Sagan--Gould Wedding.

Paris, June 22.—Mme. Anna Gould and Prince Helie de Sagan will be married in France, Germany, Poland, England or somewhere else. This is about as near as Dame Rumor has been able to get. The latest tip is that the wedding will take place in England, though there is nothing stronger to base this upon than the fact that Countess Anna and her lover prince crossed over into England from Boulogne last evening and had the auto, in which they left Paris, shipped across at the same time. On account of Madame Gould's desire to avoid publicity, one of her friends said today that the countess told her that no one would be present at the wedding except the contracting parties, the necessary witnesses and possibly the family of George Gould.

Dover, June 22.—Mme. Anna Gould and Prince Helie de Sagan arrived here today by the Folkestone channel. They traveled as Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and their identity at first escaped the notice of the other passengers. The fact that they travelled under the caption of "Mr. and Mrs." give rise to the report that they had already been married, but this was denied. It is understood that the marriage will take place in London within the next few days.

Mysterious Death.

New Philadelphia, Ohio, June 22.—Mystery in the tragic death of Arline Knisely, aged 19, and the wounding of Charles Spach Friday night was deepened when the girl's family changed plans for her burial today and interred the body privately yesterday. Coroner Romig had not held his inquest and developments may result in an order for the body to be exhumed. The authorities believe that a post mortem may reveal a motive for suicide by the girl or her death at the hands of another. Spach will live. He became conscious today and told the police that Robert C. Stueve, his partner, who was implicated by a statement made by Spach just after the shooting, had nothing to do with the tragedy.

A Bloodless Duel.

Rome, June 22.—A newspaper man named Zambelli, chosen by his associate reporters in the chamber to resent the insult cast upon them by Deputy Santani, who called the reporters "liars," fought a duel with Santani today. The affair lasted 65 minutes without injury to either man.

At the end of this time, however, Santani complained of a weak heart, and after a consultation of principals and "seconds" it was decided to call the gamd off for the present. Zambelli declares he will insist on revenge at a later date.

Hearing Postponed

New York, June 22.—Supreme Court Justice Blanchard today postponed until Wednesday the hearing of the application of the Coney Island Jockey Club to restrain Police Commissioner Bingham and the police department from interferring with the [illegible] orderly collection of crowds" at the Sheepshead Bay race track. The continuance was granted on the request of the assistant corporation counsel, who explained that he had just received the papers in the case and had not had time to prepare his brief.

Reported Purchase.

Pittsburg, June 22.—A report was current in McKeesport this afternoon to the effect that the Westinghouse Electric Company at East Pittsburg, had been purchased by J. P. Morgan and associates for $40,000,000. The report could not be verified. T. H. Given, one of the receivers of the Westinghouse Company stated that if any such deal had been put through he had no knowledge of it.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Will Second Bryan's Nomination.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, June 22.—Governor Swanson, of Virginia, will make a speech at the democratic national convention at Denver seconding the nomination of William Jennings Bryan. The governor this morning received a lengthy letter from the Nebraskan which covered various subjects and in which Mr. Bryan asked him to make a seconding speech. The governor will take pleasure in complying with the request and will so inform Mr. Bryan.

Killed by Lightning---Church Destroyed.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, June 22.—W. E. Norris, a prominent citizen of Waverly, was killed by lightning Sunday afternoon. The same storm set fire to the Cartersville Presbyterian Church, which was burned to the ground.

Secretary Taft.

New York, June 22.—Tired, but smiling, Secretary Taft bowed acknowledgements to the cheers of a big crowd when he arrived on a Pennsylvania special train in Jersey City at 10:05 o'clock today. Mr. Taft, who was accompanied by "trust buster" Frank Kellogg and by Judge Hollister, a school day friend, of Cincinnati, remained only a few minutes in Jersey City, hastening by the Twenty-third street ferry to the Manhattan Hotel, where he met his wife and child. He left at noon with them for New Haven where they will witness the boat races on Thursday and then will return to New York. On his return here Friday Secretary Taft will meet Gen. Luke Wright, his successor in the War Department, and the two will go to Oyster Bay for a consultation with the president. On June 27 he will go to Washington and close up his business of the War Department. After finishing up the business of his department in Washington Secretary Taft will return to Cincinnati where he expects to spend the months of September and October.

Women Students to be Expelled.

St. Petersburg, June 22.—One of the most sweeping repressive measures ever attempted by the czar was promulgated today when M. von Kauffman, minister of public instruction, decreed that all women students be expelled from Russian universities and that none be admitted henceforth. It was known that such a move was under consideration by the czar and his ministers, owing to the revolutionary activity of many of the women students and graduates, but there was little idea that such a radical step would be taken. The new edict affects 2,200 women, many of whom are nearing their graduation and hundreds of whom are making fearful sacrifices that they may obtain an education. Men students are sympathizing with the women, and if the new order is enforced there will undoubtedly be a repetition of the students riots that for so long a time have festured the discontent and political unrest of the younger generation of Russians.

Searching for Alleged Swindler.

New York, June 22.—Secret service men with headquarters detectives are scouring New York today to find John Shaw, once a waiter, who as "Lieut. Smith Cox, jr.," is accused of victimizing various New York clubs as well as having abducted Anna Louise, the 17-year-old daughter of Louis Behner, an official of the Hartford Insurance Company, living in Hartford, Conn. Shaw has operated in Boston, Minneapolis and Chicago. He was heard of in Point Pleasant, N. J., before coming to New York. Search for Shaw is said to have revealed his picture in the rogues' gallery at Salem, Mass., where as Lieut. Carhart and later as Lieut. Grimshaw he victimized local merchants and bankers to the extent of hundreds of dollars.

Arrested on Suspicion.

Hamburg, June 22.—A dozen arrests have been made here of discharged stevedores who are suspected of complicity in "planting" a bomb in the hold of the German freighter Arcadia, which exploded with such frightful results as the vessel was being unloaded at a pier in Philadelphia Saturday. The suspects are being put through a vigorous sweating and the police are confident that they will extort a confession. Not only are the police certain that some of the discharged stevedores placed the bomb in the hold of the Arcadia, but they believe that other vessels clearing from here have been similarly jeopardized, and word has been sent to all of those to exercise the greatest care in unloading.

Fire in a Torpedo Station.

Newport, R. I., June 22.—Fire early this morning at the government torpedo station located on an island in the harbor caused a panic here, for had the flames reached the high explosives stored in the magazines the explosions would have created havoc even on the main land. Fortunately the fire was confined to the chemical laobratory, where it originated. Here chemicals exploded with terrific reports which gave rise to the rumor that the fire had reached the magazines. The interior of the laboratory was wrecked and its destruction will delay the manufacture of torpedoes on a large scale, which the government was to begin here on July 1.

Miners Lose Their Lives.

Paris, June 22.—Twelve miners are known to have lost their lives in an explosion of fire damp in a mine at Saint Etienne today. A number were injured and it is feared that when the shaft is searched other bodies will be found. Details of the accident are lacking. Relief train has been dispatched to the scene. A great crowd gathered about the mine and the distress of many of the women, mothers and wives of the miners whose fate was unknown was so great that they could hardly be restrained from entering the mine.

Jews Dissatisfied.

St. Petersburg, June 22.—The sentencing of thirteen Russians to prison today for complicity in the massacre of Jews at Bialstok two years ago, has not tended to pacify the Jews in the least. They assert that the men sentenced are being made the scapegoats for high Russian officials, who instigated the massacre. One of the convicted men was sentenced to three years in prison, and twelve others to nine months. Seventeen were acquitted. The prosecutor begged for mercy for the men, declaring that the Jews themselves provoked the massacre.

Appointment of a Newspaper Man.

Oyster Bay, June 22.—President Roosevelt announced today that John Callan O'Loughlin, of Washington, had been appointed secretary of the Japanese exposition commission. O'Loughlin is a well-known newspaper correspondent and is acceptable to the Tokio government.

The rumor that Secretary Loeb may be chosen chairman of the republican national committee to manage the Taft campaign may be dismissed as foundationless.

Miraculous Escape.

San Francisco, June 22.—Falling 500 feet in a balloon, Jos. Randall, an aeronant, is today nursing only a few bruises after an escape at Idora Park, Oakland, which thrilled thousands of spectators. Randall was high in the air when a spark in some unknown way set the big gas bag aflame and it shot down like a meteor. He struct on the roof of a theater, but escaped practically unhurt.

The Fitzsimon-Morgan Wedding.

New York, June 22.—Fearing attempts by crooks on the jewels of the rich who will throng Tuxedo tomorrow for the wedding of Miss Ursula Morgan, neice of J. Pierpont Morgan, Chief of Police Gilmore Bosh of that fashionable resort, has asked the aid of central office men from this city. Miss Morgan is to wed Rev. Dr. Wm. Fitzsimon, rector of St. Mary's church, Tuxedo.

Labor Candidates.

Springfield, Ill., June 22.—John Mitchell for governor; S. O. Drew, republican, for lieutenant-governor. These are labor's selections for the state elections. Mitchell and Draw and eight candidates for the general assembly were endorsed by the Illinois Federation of labor of its district convention and an active campaign decided upon.

Heat Wave in Chicago.

Chicago, June 22.—Chicago gasped again today in the terrific heat wave which has gripped the city for three days. A dozen prostrations were reported early in the day and one death, William Hobson, 55 years old, dropped dead from heat in a down-town alley. The weather bureau promises no relief tonight.

Fines Imposed!

New York, June 22.—In the United States Circuit Court today Judge Hough imposed a fine of $2,000 each on twenty-four manufacturers of manila and fiber paper on their plea of guilty to violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 22.—The selling of Rock Island securities that caused weakness Saturday continued this morning. The preferred declined 2½ points and the common one point. The market became heavy and at the end of the first hour prices generally showed losses ranging from fractions to over a point.

Mr. Taft reached New Haven today to attend the reunion of his class at Yale.

At a meeting held at the office of Mr. G. L. Boothe on Saturday evening last of the democratic committee of the Eighth district there were present all the members but Mr. G. S. Shackelford, viz: G. L. Boothe, of Alexandria; R. T. Green, of Culpeper; R. H. McIntyre, of Warrenton, and Paul E. Garrett, of Loudoun. Mr. McIntyre presided. Mr. G. S. Shackelford was re-elected chairman and Mr. R. T. Green, secretary. The vote cast in the primary election held on the 9th instant was canvassed and found to be as follows:

RECTOR RESIGNS.

Rev. W. Strother Jones, D.D., rector of St. Michael's Episcopal church, Trenton, N. J., has resigned, and September 1 will become rector of St. Paul's, the leading Episcopal church in Erie, Pa.

Had Dr. Jones continued at St. Michael's until October 1 he would have completed twelve years' service there. Dr. Jones was born at "Oak Hill," Fauquier county, Virginia, the former home of the distinguished Chief Justice Marshall, of the United States supreme court, who was the clergyman's great-grandfather. He is a brother of Dr. T. M. Jones, of Alexandria, and formally lived in this city. He was graduated from Washington and Lee university, in Virginia, which honored him with the degree of doctor of divinity in 1894. It was in Virginia also that Dr. Jones was ordained.

In all probability the last official act of Dr. Jones in Trenton, outside St. Michael's, will be the invocation he will deliver at the unveiling of the Roebling statute, June 30.—[Trenton, N. J., Daily States Gazette

PREPARING FOR TETANUS.

Warning is given by the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service in Washington to parents and to the medical fraternity to prepare against lockjaw, following the usual crop of toy pistol and firecrackers injuries of Fourth of July celebration. A table shows there were 786 cases of tetanus, with 732 deaths in the United States during the past five years, 80 per cent of the tetanus cases following blank cartridge injuries. These are ghastly figures, and they should appeal not only to parents, but to the authorities of all cities. There are plenty of laws in this city and State against the use of explosives, and now that the Sunday laws are being enforced it would be well if the authorities eliminated the toy pistol by enforcing the law against those who sell this deadly toy; also to see that the Fourth of July is observed in a sane manner and without the ear-splitting explosives, which are generally in evidence on that day.

OBSERVANCE OF SUNDAY.

Yesterday was a virtual dies non in Alexandria. Apart from the delivery of milk, newspapers and meats which grocerymen had kept on ice, the observance of the Sunday law was almost general. Large numbers of people left the city, some spending the day at points on the electric railway, others at nearby excursion resorts and numbers in Washington, or in traveling up and down on the ferryboat. Two persons were before the Police Court this morning charged with conducting business yesterday. One was a druggist whose place of business is on upper King street. The other was that of a groceryman in the southwestern part of the city. It being their first offense they were fined $2 each.

DEATH OF MRS. GAMMON.

Mrs. Willie B. Gammon, wife of Rev. Samuel R. Gammon, Presbyterian missionary to Brazil, died at Rural Retreat, Wythe county, Va., yesterday. The deceased, besides her husband, leaves a daughter. Mrs. Gammon had been in ill-health for some time, and recently her condition became so serious that it was necessary for her to return to the United States in order to obtain surgical aid. She had many acquaintances in Alexandria, having often accompanied her husband to this city. Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, left last night for Rural Retreat for the purpose of attending the funeral.

THREE PERSONS DROWNED.

Yesterday morning Alexander Fowler, fifty years old, colored, a watchman employed at Riley's wharf, Washington, attempted to jump from the wharf to the deck of the steamer T. V. Arrowsmith. He slipped and plunged into the water and was drowned. Lewis Johnson, 12 years old, colored, was drowned at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon while swimming in Rock Creek, Georgetown. In trying to board the steamer River Queen at Washington at 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening, George Ouden, twenty-four years old, colored, lost his footing and fell into the river. He was drowned before assistance reached him.

RECONCILIATION.

Recently, it will be remembered, George L. Wright, a traveling salesman of Philadelphia, sent a communication to the Gazette notifying the public that his wife, Lillian P. Wright, had deserted him and her two children and had come to Alexandria with Harvey Allen. On Saturday evening Mrs. Wright appeared at the station house and told Lieutenent Smith that she was stopping in Alexandria, but that she was not living with Allen nor had she any intention of doing so. About 6 o'clock yesterday morning Wright and his wife appeared at the station house when the husband begged his wife to return to their home and two children, Hattie, two years old, and George, aged five. Lieut. Smith acted as mediator between the estranged couple and a reconciliation followed, after which the young man and his wife left for Philadelphia. Wright went to police headquarters about 5 o'clock yesterday morning and requested the police to locate his wife. Officers Roberts and Garvey found Mrs. Wright at the home of Mrs. William E. Allen, 509 north Henry street. It is alleged by Wright that the woman eloped once before with Allen, whom she is said to have accompanied to Alexandria, and that they were arrested at Camden, N. J.

A dispatch from Baltimore dated last night says: George L. Wright and wife, of Philadelphia, were in a peculiar predicament here last night. They came down on an excursion yesterday morning to see the sights of Baltimore. Yesterday afternoon, when Wright lost his pocketbook, containing all his money and their return tickets, they appealed to the police for aid. The wife is nearly frantic with fear for her two children, whom they locked in their Ridge avenue home before they left this morning after providing the little ones with food enough to last them until their parents returned. The Baltimore police wired the Philadelphia police to go to the house and see that the children were cared for.

These may be the same people who left here yesterday morning.

CHARGE AGAINST RAILWAY COMPANY.

Before his departure from Washington Secretary Taft referred the case of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company to the attorney general for prosecution under the law. The case involves the employment of an overhead trolley by the railroad on the Washington approach to the Highway bridge. Lieut. Dent, the United States engineer officer in charge of the bridge, has reported to the War Department that the company is using the approach in violation of law in having failed to install a complete and satisfactory underground system.

REV. W. F. WATSON ACCEPTS.

The Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor of the South Street Baptist Church, will tender his resignation to his congregation this morning. Mr. Watson resigns to accept a call to the First Baptist Church in Alexandria, where there is a larger field and a larger salary. Mr. Watson came to the South Street Baptist Church three years ago from Greensboro, N. C., and his ministerial work here has been successful.—[Norfolk Landmark, 21st.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Edward Sinclair, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5.

W. D. Hudson and Stewart Simpson, charged with violating the Sunday laws, was fined $2 each.

FIGHT.

A fight took place late last Saturday night in the neighborhood of the Stone Bridge between a saloonkeeper named Edward Sinclair and a young man named Kraus. A crowd gathered and considerable excitement ensued. Officer Talbot endeavored to stop the fight but he was unsuccessful. Sinclair was arrested and brought before the Police Court this morning and fined $5. Kraus managed to leave the city before the officers could take him in custody.

WARM WAVE.

The weather yesterday was sultry, the mercury having been well up in the nineties. There were indications of a heavy rain at times during the afternoon. There was, however, but a slight sprinkle here, the clouds having passed some distance south of this city. Between nine and ten o'clock at night a refreshing westerly breeze set in which was followed by another light rain, and lower temperature. The weather has been warm again today.

FELL OVERBOARD.

Considerable merriment was caused among a large number of people who had gathered at the foot of Prince street late yesterday evening by the antics of several men who were in a batteau. The men began skylarking when two tumbled overboard. A third attempted to stand in the boat when it careened and he, too, fell into the dock.

THE NEW BONDS.

Among the bond acceptances today was $2,100 from a gentleman now living in Baltimore, and at one time at Harper's Ferry, West Va. These bonds were in 1879 registered in the name of the present owner. When sending out the circular letter one was addressed to the owner, at Harper's Ferry. Writing from his residence in Baltimore, he says: "I enclose my acceptance of the proposed plan for exchange of bonds. I regret my delay in this matter. It was due to my absence from the country. Kindly advise me whether the old bonds should be sent in."

The original owner of the $2,100 was among the few persons who offered to, and did, fund his 1872 bonds in 1878 for a bond which represented fifty per cent. of its face, and six per cent. interest. It will be remembered that this plan of scaling the principal failed to recommend itself, and in 1879 all of the bonds issued in 1878 were called in, and the creditors placed on the same footing.

They will be met before entering the city by a detail of Sons of Confederate Veterans, mounted, and will be escorted directly to the hall, where every arrangement for their entertainment has been made.

He Took a Hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Stockson Bonds are inveterate bridge whist players, and their home is the meeting place of bridge players of all grades. On one evening in every week they are "at home" to any of their friends who wish to play, and on other evenings they entertain parties of their own selection for games which range from a cent a point to a much higher figure. Recently, long after the house had been closed, a noise was heard downstairs, and, regardless of his wife's protests, Stockson Bonds went below to ascertain the cause. The noise continued and grew louder, but no answer came to the wife's calls from above. She became alarmed, opened the window, saw a policeman, and he made a rush for the basement door. A few minutes later the husband appeared before his panic stricken wife and told her he had found the servants playing bridge and wrangling over the propriety of a certain play.

"Did you send the whole party away?" asked the wife.

"Why, no. I took a hand and decided the question before I realized where I was."—New York Tribune.

He Held On.

"In a town back in Vermont one time," said a doctor, "a big, husky lumberman entered the office of a dentist I knew and showed the doctor a bad tooth. The dentist decided that the tooth should be pulled.

"'All right,' said the lumberman. 'But listen now. If I tell you to stop, you stop pulling or I'll beat you up.'

"The dentist agreed, and the lumberman got in the chair. The dentist took hold of the tooth and began pulling. Almost immediately the lumberman yelled, 'Hold on!'

"The dentist continued to pull. 'Hold on!' yelled the lumberman. The dentist kept pulling, and the tooth came out. Then the lumberman jumped from the chair mad.

"'Why didn't you stop when I told you to?' he asked fiercely.

"'You didn't tell me to stop,' said the dentist.

"'I did too! I yelled "Hold on!" twice.'

"'Oh,' said the dentist innocently, 'I thought you meant to keep hold of it.'

"The lumberman believed him and cooled off."—Denver Post.

Agility of Hares and Rabbits.

Interesting figures on the relative agility of hares and rabbits are given in a volume by J. G. Millais. "When running at ease," he says, "the length of the hare's stride is about four feet, but under conditions of fear its leaps extend to ten and twelve feet, while some authors claim that it can jump ten ditches twenty to twenty-five feet in width. Perpendicularly a hare can jump on to a five foot wall, but seems to be nonplused by one about six feet. The stride of the rabbit is about two feet. When necessary it can make leaps of six or seven feet horizontally. About three feet is the highest that a rabbit can attain to even when helped by the asperities of a stone wall." Mr. Millais tells how rabbits swim—when compelled to: "They swim with the head held as high as possible, while the hocks of the hind legs appear above the element at each stroke. The shoulders and front part of the body are buried beneath the water, while the rump and tail are high and dry."

Tyranny of Clothes.

Place a man in a silk hat and frock coat and transport him to a farmyard. Agricultural pursuits may be the one passion of his life, but clad in these garments he feels in such surroundings miserable, out of place, essentially urban. Clothe him, conversely, in flannels or knickers and place him in a church, and it is utterly impossible for him to assume a fittingly devotional frame of mind. Unlimited autocracy itself cannot impose such tyrannies on the subject. Civilization is the slave of its clothes, and there is no prospect of freedom. — London Graphic.

The Juice of the Grape.

The Arabs say that when the first grapevine was planted the demon Iblis sacrificed a peacock on the spot where the plant was set. As soon as it began to sprout forth he sacrificed an ape over it. When the grapes began to appear he slaughtered a lion, and when these were ripe he offered up a pig; hence it is that he who drinks wine feels at first as proud as a peacock and becomes subsequently as tricksome as an ape, as bold as a lion and at length as stupid as a swine.

Definitions.

Asked to define a suffragist, a British schoolboy answered, "A person who creates a disturbance." One boy described "surf" as "a form of seaweed which grows in the Pacific ocean." In an essay on the canine race a pupil declared that "small dogs improve by keeping," and another gave the singular of "twain" as "worsted."

There Yet.

Scott—My wife's mother has visited us only once in five years. Mott—That isn't bad. When do you expect her to pay her second visit? Scott—Oh, she hasn't got through her first yet.—New York Telegraph.

Then She Talked.

The Mule's Delusion.

The pack mule is quite as much an institution as the team mule and is absolutely indispensable in the mountains. Mule packing is a fine art, and with a well trained animal and a skillful packer you can safely transport anything from a piano to a bag of oats. When the packer has finished his job in an artistic manner, the animal may buck or back, kick or rear or roll, but he cannot rid himself of his burden, and he finally gives it up in despair. After two or three experiences he will submit to his destiny and fall into line with the rest of the train every morning to receive his load from the packer. A well trained pack mule is always proud of his load, and if by any means it gets loose he will step quietly out of line and wait until the packmaster comes along to tighten it.

The most serious objection to the mule, which you sometimes find in human beings also, is the delusion that he can sing. One who has never heard a mule solo cannot appreciate the extent of his mistake; but, like everything else about a mule, his song is strictly original. It belongs to no other animal. No one can describe and no one can imitate it.—New York Mail.

Mixed Pickles.

Bishop Knox once explained that "Mr. McKenna's sword was an overloaded pistol which, being hung up in a tight corner lest it should burst, pretended to be dead until it got up and trotted home on the friendly back of the bishop of St. Asaph." But it is in political debate, especially in the house of commons, that the mixed metaphor flourishes most luxuriantly. "The floodgates of irreligion and intemperance are stalking arm in arm throughout the land." "This bill effects such a change that the last leap in the dark was a mere flea bite." "That is the marrow of the educational act, and it will not be taken out by Dr. Clifford or anybody else. It is founded on a granite foundation and speaks in a voice not to be drowned in sectarian clamor." "The question of moisture in tobacco is a thorny subject and has long been a bone of contention."—Manchester Guardian.

Tulip Soup.

"What makes this vegetable soup taste so different?" asked the young husband of the pretty bride.

"Only the leeks you sent home," replied the bride. "You remember you said you were going to order leeks."

"I didn't order any leeks," growled the husband, but he finished his bowl of soup rather than disappoint her.

That afternoon he stopped at the grocery store.

"How did you come to send leeks up to my house this morning?" he demanded. "I didn't order them."

"Great Scott! Did you eat them?" exclaimed the grocer.

"Sure, we ate them."

"Oh, for land's sake. They were Mrs. Jackson's tulip bulbs. She left them on the counter and they got into your basket by mistake."—Detroit Free Press.

A Queer Practice.

A queer practice which is general throughout all the tribes of Australia is the ribbing of the skin. When the children are still young long cuts are made across the chest, down the upper arm and leg and even across the back and ribs. While the wound is quite fresh the cut is opened and a mixture of mud is grafted in, the skin being pulled as far as possible over it. The skin eventually grows completely round the mud filling and forms ridges varying in length and size from an ordinary lead pencil to the thickness of a man's little finger and extending from armpit to armpit. I am informed that while the healing process is going on the pain is exquisite, but the result seems to satisfy all parties concerned.—London Standard.

The Brave Butterfly.

Here is an unorthodox story of King Solomon: One day a butterfly sat on the king's temple and boasted to his wife. "If I chose I could lift my wing and shiver this building to the ground," he swaggered. Solomon, overhearing, sent for the boaster. "How dare you?" he thundered. The butterfly groveled. "I did it to impress my wife," he pleaded. The great monarch was instantly appeased and let him go. "What did Solomon say to you?" gasped a quivering wife five minutes later. "Oh, he begged me not to do it," said the butterfly airily. And Solomon, again overhearing, smiled.—Chicago News.

Wifely Curiosity.

"Henry, dear, I tried on a suit of your clothes the other day, and it fitted me to perfection."

"May I ask your object in taking such a liberty with my garments?"

"Why, Belle Greene said she heard Tommy Tolliver say that you wasn't much bigger than a shrimp, and I was just wondering how big a shrimp is."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Alike In One Way.

"He's quite wealthy and prominent now," said Mrs. Starvem, "and they say he rose practically from nothing."

"Well, well!" remarked Mr. Border. "That's just what I rose from—at the breakfast table this morning."—London Answers.

For a Sprained Ankle.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by W. F.
